A STATEMENT.

I wish to state through the columns of your widely read paper that the rumor circulated relative to a controversy between Mrs. Millie Jeff and myself is untrue in its entirety and without foundation as there has been no misunderstanding whatever between us.

MRS. GEO. W. LITTLE.

This little mound holds only The worn out house of clay That sheltered and cared for me, Through life's long, changeable day. Tread softly; with reverent touch Forever close the door, It hath done well its part, I shall not need it more.

I know not what awaits me On that further shore, But trust the Father's care To see me safely o'er, And on, and up, what e'er may be Till I reach the mansion prepared for me.

1922 Michigan.

TUCSON, ARIZONA.

BY ROBT. M. LAWSON.

Tucson, the banner city of Arizona, possessing the world's greatest climate, has just experienced the liveliest week of its history, insofar as the Afro-American is concerned. Your correspondent has been so busy attending the numerous delightful affairs that he has been unable to get all events together, but however, we shall endeavor to report a few of the most notable.

The public installation of officers of Good Hope Lodge 152, A. F. & A. M. and Rosebud Chapter 38, O. E. S., Jurisdiction of Missouri, was held in the Mexican Methodist Church, last Thursday evening, September 9, and was attended by an exceedingly large audience. The ceremonies were very impressive and very ably conducted. Mr. R. M. Lawson, D. D. G. M., deserves the highest praise for the manner in which the ceremonies were carried out and the completeness of arrangements. The feature of the evening was the participation of Mr. Nelson C. Crews, noted editor of The Kansas City Sun and Grand Master of the Missouri Jurisdiction of Masons, under whose auspices the Tucson lodges were organized. Mr. Geo. W. K. Love, president of the Love Regalia Co., of Kansas City, also Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Missouri and Grand Patron of the O. E. S., aided in the installation ceremonies. The installation ceremonies were followed by an elaborate banquet at the Odd Fellows hall, at which both Grand Master Crews and Grand Patron Love delivered addresses which were indeed very eloquent and instructive. The former spoke on "Racial Development and Community Betterment," and the latter spoke on "The Fraternity and Its Relation to the Afro-American." Both Mr. Crews and Mr. Love urged more unity within the race. In speaking of Tucson, Grand Master Crews stated that he was very much pleased to find the good feeling and co-operation existing between the two races in Tucson and Southern Arizona, and that he appreciated very much his pleasant visit in Tucson, and "I will be a booster for Tucson from now on. I was certainly more than surprised to see such a thriving, progressive city set away out here in the desert, and my visit has convinced me that Tucson bids fair to become a most important city and one of the greatest commercial centers of the United States. I feel sure that Tucson will receive the benefits of a large immigration to the West this fall and winter. From information that I have obtained, there will be a big movement of homeseekers towards the West this coming season, and I feel sure that Tucson, right in the way of the coming immigrants, will get a good share." "It seems to me that the mining industry should be of great aid in the future upbuilding of Tucson. This, with the splendid climate and agricultural development, will make Tucson the coming city."

Covers were laid for seventy-eight persons at the banquet and the arrangements were carried out on an elaborate scale. It was the most notable event ever carried out by the Afro-Americans of Tucson. Mr. Crews and Mr. Love remained in the city two days and left for Phoenix on Friday morning. From there they go on to the coast and to visit the expositions there.

Rev. Wells, the noted divine of El Paso, Texas, arrived in the city last Wednesday in company with Mr. Crews and Mr. Love. Rev. Wells held services at the A. M. E. Church for two evenings and those who heard him state that he is indeed an excellent speaker. Rev. Wells left Friday evening for the West.

Residents of the "Old Pueblo" were given quite a surprise last Tuesday evening upon learning of the quiet wedding of Miss Louisa Williams to Mr. Joseph Montcrief of the Consolidated Bank. The bride and groom have moved to the newly acquired ranch of Mr. Montcrief.

The local Odd Fellow lodge on last Monday evening gave a delightful entertainment at their hall at which a very large attendance was reported and a very pleasant evening spent.

Mrs. R. M. Lawson and Matilda McAlston distinguished themselves as being speakers of more than passing note in the deliveries of their addresses of introduction and welcome at the Masonic installation.

We have as visitors in our city some very pleasant and prominent people in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, who have planned to spend the winter in Tucson. Mrs. Johnson is an accomplished musician and her renditions at the Masonic installation received much favorable comment.

Mr. Thos. Skinner of Los Angeles is another welcome visitor. Mr. Skinner is thirty-second degree Mason and a Past Master of his lodge at Los Angeles. He is employed in the erection of the Masonic Temple at Tucson.

Miss Mary White of Alabama, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. F. White of East Fifth street, will leave for home in a few days. We are sorry to see her go and shall anxiously await her return, won't we Gus?

Miss Yates of the North Side, has returned from California after spending the summer and has with her a lady friend whose name we have been unable to learn, that will spend the winter with her.

Mrs. A. M. Morrow of North Stone avenue, will leave shortly for Phoenix to make her home.

Rev. Humphrey of the Baptist Church, who delivered the welcome address at the Masonic installation, left for his vacation Saturday morning.

The Literary Society at the A. M. E. Church report very successful sessions and a steady increase in membership and promise an excellent program for next Friday evening.

Mr. R. M. Lawson has been reappointed as District Deputy Grand Master of Western Arizona by Grand Master Crews.

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

Rev. Vahlie of Wichita, Kas., was in the City this week.

The public schools opened Monday with a large number enrolled.

Quarterly meeting was observed Sunday at the A. M. E. church.

James Cahill, 246 Franklin Avenue, leaves Sunday for Waller, Okla., to visit his mother whom he has not seen for nine years. She will accompany him home for an indefinite stay.

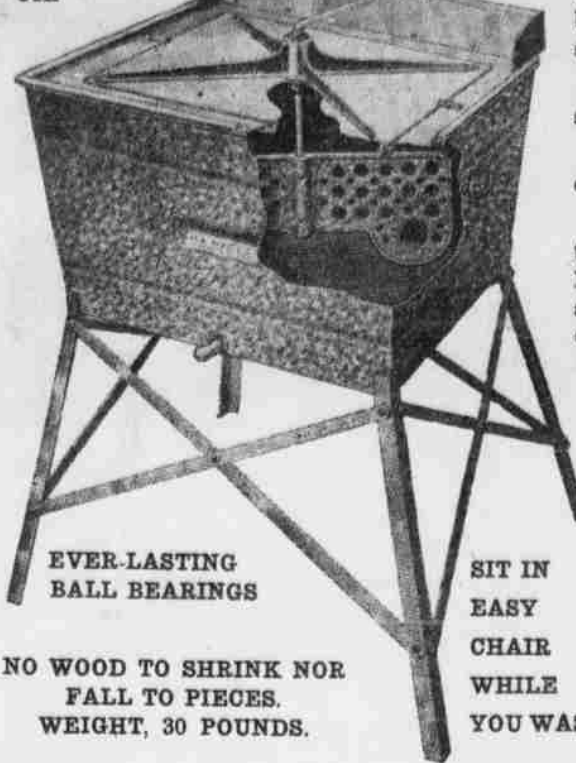

Mr. Earl D. Thomas, 17 S. Harrison Street, left the city today accompanied by his mother, Mrs. B. F. Thomas for Chicago, where Mr. Thomas will enter the Chicago University to continue his studies.

The Baptist Carnival closed last week and the contestants for Queen were as follows: Ethel Weeden, first, $35; Orpha Scott 8 St. Ch.—$66; Miss Miller, Pleasant Green Baptist church, K. C., Kas., $75. Miss Miller was crowned Queen of the Carnival, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Branche, 835 Nebraska Avenue, gave one of the swiftest receptions of the season at their home last Thursday afternoon in honor of Prof. and Mrs. T. H. Reynolds. The house was beautifully decorated and music and games were indulged in. A dainty lunch was served.

Glowing tributes were paid to the memory of one of Kansas City, Kansas' most beloved citizens, Mrs. Pearl Douglass, the wife of F. K. Douglass, a letter carrier of this city, 128 Garfield Avenue, last Friday morning when the funeral services were held at the residence, under the auspices of Prince Hall Grand Court H. of J. Mary Madeline Court of which Mrs. Mollie Williams is M. A. G. M. and Mrs. Nellie Wilson is M. A. M. respectively. Many beautiful resolutions were read and addresses delivered, after which the cortege was escorted to the Episcopal Church of which the deceased had been a faithful and active member.

ONLY ONE MOVING PART USE NO OIL

The "SHOW-ME" Washer has shown a great many persons how easy it is to do twice as much, and better washing than can be done by hand, and if you will try it it will show you.

GUARANTEED TO PAY for ITSELF in saving in soap and fuel in short time.

NOTHING TO WEAR out, no bolts, nuts, etc., to get loose.

If you do bundle washing you can earn twice as much money with the "SHOW-ME" Washer; save in cost of soap and fuel, and send home WHITER and CLEANER CLOTHES, and NOT BE SO TIRED.

Mrs. Nannie Fields, 1233 Vine street, has used one of these washers several weeks and says she would not be without it. Her hands, head and back do not ache from washing as before, and can do twice as much work.

Mrs. Georgia Lewis, 1507 1/2 East 12th, said she could not have washed last Monday but for the "SHOW-ME," because her chest was so sore. She said the "SHOW-ME" Washer was good for invalids.

tions were read and addresses delivered, after which the cortege was escorted to the Episcopal Church of which the deceased had been a faithful and active member.

Father R. H. Mize delivered the eulogy and the choir rendered select music for the occasion. Hundreds of persons attended to pay their last respect to this highly esteemed personage. She was a member of the choir, a teacher in the Sunday School, president of the Story Hour for Children, president Yates Y. W. C. A., president Mothers' Club of Stowe school, Senior Matron, Prince Hall Grand Court H. of J., Grand Secretary for two years and M. A. M. of Mary Madeline Court and at the time of her death was vice president. Matrons Council, all of which she filled with pride and success. Left to mourn her demise are a husband, two sons, Frederick, Jr., and Elias, a sister, brother, other relatives and a host of friends. Floral tributes were many and beautiful costing several hundreds of dollars. Nathan Thatcher was funeral director.
